CORRECT STUDY HABITS ENCOURAGED

Students and Teachers Receive Help From Principal

Correct study habits will lessen the number of failures and raise the standard of Lincoln High School. Principal H. O. Cook studied "Study Helps for High Schools" at the University of Michigan last summer and is now trying out a plan to bring about more trying out a plan to bring about more careful preparation on the part of pupils. "The principle reasons why pupils. "The principle reasons why High School students don't know how to study are: "The lack of a quiet place at home to study and the ignorance of what study means," said Principal Cook in an interview last week. One thousand copies of these study helps have been printed for distribu-tion. Each student is to have one copy. Mr. Cook expects each student to paste his copy in some book, study it carefully and follow directions.

"These Study Helps are not only for the students but for the teachers as well", said Principal Cook. "Teachers have to do more in giving assignments than they have done before for it is necessary for the teacher to make definite what the student is to do and how he is to go about it.'

After careful study and preparation Principal H. O. Cook is presenting to you his Study Helps for High Schools. Take yours and use it accordingly.

Students Get Good Jobs

Members of the respective trades, cooking, sewing, carpentry, cabinet making, painting, shoe repairing and have had little difficulty in masonry, have had little difficulty in locating jobs this summer. Under the ruling of Mr. O. H. Day, trade courses are completed in two years. At this time a diploma is given as a credential to whoever should employ them.

One employer of our girls, who can sew, announces that she has nothing to do but cut, fit and design the dresses. The girls finish them as well as she herself could. All girls under her are graduates of the Lincoln High trade class

The Inter-class World History Review, was held October 2, 1929. The questions were made out by Mr. Love. Three pupils were required to represent each group. The results were groups two and five made the highest averages, which were seventy-eight per cent. The highest individual averages were made by Mildred Mitchel, Preston Burris, and Charles Caldwell. These pupils averages were ninty. The group to which Charles Caldwell belongs was disqualified because of insufficient representatives.

Seniors Meet With Alumni

The Alumni Association is inviting the members of the Senior class to the social meetings that they have planned to have once a month. Due to the large number of girls in the class only one advisory will be entertained at a time. On Tuesday, October 1, Mr. Marsdens and Mr. Mayberry's advisory groups were invited to the meeting. It was held at 2223 Montgall Ave. Everyone expressed themselves as having had an enjoyable evening.

STUDENTS RECEIVE SAFETY ADVICE

Good Hadis Insure Safety and Lessens Accidents

Good habits are much easier to form than bad habits. Good habits will give you a lot of smiles and happiness instead of a lot of frowns and sadness says Mr. Clinton Paddock. He gave an imaginary black board illustration showing that it took two strokes more with the pencil to print "Bad" than it does "Good". Mr. Paddock was a redoes "Good". Mr. Paddock was a re-presentative from the Kansas City Safety Council. He is interested in the Safety Campaign which began this habits or unnecessary accidents. also insisted that we join in the cam-paign and make it a successful one. He guarantees that one week of the habit of prevention of accidents will take care of six weeks of accidents.

Chorus Learns Negro Spirituals

The chorus which is under the direction of Miss Morrison is studying steal Away a Negro Spiritual. The chorus is particularly interesting in this spiritual because its arrangement was made by Major N. Clark Smith.

Mr. Smith was a former instructor of music in the Lincoln High School. He has spent much of his time in arranging songs especially Negro Spirit ranging songs especially Negro Spirituals which are the folksongs of the Negro people.

The folk song is written in four parts, Soprano, Alto, Tenor and Bass. Mr. Smith also wrote the music of our school song, Oh! Lincoln High. Mr. Jules Jones was a former pupil of Mr. Smith.

Radio Show Lures Pupils

The Physics and Science classes of Lincoln High School attended the radio show at Convention Hall on Thursday and Friday, September 26 and 27. They were chaperoned by Mr. Pittman and Mr. Bluford. They attended the show to see the General Electric dem-onstrations. What seemed to interest the students mostly was Bernay Johnson, who performed his electrical tricks lighting lamps, running an electric fan and frying an egg in a skillet, all by radio wave. The performance of Televox, the man with the electric soul, created much wonder, so the chaperones sav.

NEGRO HISTORY CLASS LISTENS IN

September 30, Mr. Howell's Negro History class went to Mr. Armstrong's room where the period was well spent in an unusually quiet and orderly man-ner discussing many interesting matters of grave importance, says the members of the class. Mr. Armstrong started the period by inviting the students to ask questions concerning Marcus Garvey. Mr. Armstrong made known who Mr. Garvey was, his ideals an dpurpose of desiring to bring to-gether in Africa all of the Negroes of the world. He pointed out that it would be a hard proposition for the other countries who owned colonies in Africa to give them up owing to the wealth of that country. And that it is likely that they would not do so. After a very interesting talk on Mr. Garvey and his work and on Africa, Mr. Armstrong brought out the feet that the strong brought out the fact that the people living in the western part of the United States were not as interested in the Negro advancement societies as are the people in the East.

Urge Your Parents to Vote

On October 19th another school bond election will be held in Kansas City. This election should be of vast importance to students of Lincoln High School for if this bond passes it will mean a new high school for Lincoln on the lot recently vacated by Western

Each student should urge his parents and neighbors who are eligible to vote to vote in favor the school bond.

Many of our people fail to realize the importance of the bond election to the Negro population of Kansas City. Many were lead to vote against the bond because they felt that their taxes would be increased though it was plainly stated that the victory of the bond would have no effect upon the taxpayers of Kansas City.

What About the Library

What is the library? Why, a place to study, of course. It is equipped with books, tables and chairs. It is comfortable too. It is warm in winter and cool in summer and always full of sunlight.

Yes, all that is true but it is hard to study in the library for two reasons. First: One's train of thought is constantly being interrupted by unnecessary noises, and second: some of the books have actually lost their leaves or are fearfully marked, scratched or ink-blotted.

These acts performed against that most admirable institution, the library, only prove our ingratitude and inappreciativeness for it. To regain the long lost faith in our culture once held by many, there is but one course. Handle the library with care.

School Savings

The School Saving System is one of playing. the greatest things that was ever attempted in the schools of Kansas City. Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas has introduced a bill in Congress to create a department of public educa-tion. The object is to abolish illiteracy in several states. ONE TOUCHDOWN BEATS LIBERTY

Only one touchdown was needed to give the Tigers a 6-0 verdict over the Garrison Bears of Liberty. At least that was all that they were able to register. Had they needed more your writer would have had to tell an altogether different story.

There were as many thrills in the game as there were seniors elected to important offices in the school during the recent election. This was probably due to the fact that it was a dreary day, the field was laid heavy by rain and there were a few seniors in the lineup who might have not overcome the shock of the election returns, and did not feel well enough to play by their junior friends.

The lone touchdown of the game came in the first quarter, after the Tigers had pushed their way down to the Bears' one-foot line. It was from this point that Williams carried the ball to the line only to lose it when he saved the Tigers the embarrassment of not scoring at all.

The Tigers march to another touchdown was halted just one foot from the line as the timekeeper's watch showed that time was up.

Slaughter, the Bears quarterback gave a good account of himself in toting the pigskin and almost got away several times. The lineup:

OLD AND YOUNG TIGERS MEET IN BATTLE

The old and young Tigers of Lincoln High fought their annual battle on the gridiron Friday, September 27. The Alumni did not quite make the comeback that they intended to make, but nevertheless they held the young fellows down longer than they have been held for years. The hard falls, knocking, and plunging started at the beginning of the first quarter. The big husky giants that towered over the young Tigers looked as though they young the state of the young fallows aline but would eat the young fellows alive, but would eat the young fellows alive, but some how the young fellows held their own against the big fellows. Big Nat "Nappz" Lewis a 220 pound guard was savage with his terrible line plunges on the Lincolnite line men. Claude Elliott former Lincolnite grid star still made his great runs as of old, and another griant called Leyke befilded all in other giant called Leake baffled all in his wars of making a touch down for the Alumni, which was also the tying score. "Little John Blue" Hayes was still up to his old tricks in the position of center, this time opposite his pals. On the opposive fellow's side Little Epps was striving hard to get more and more yardage for the Old Gold and Blue. Cantt, another back fielder made some pretty passes, one of which scored for Lincoln after Captain "Ox" Coleman made a touchdown after make ing a short run ahead of some four or five Alumni giants. The Alumni five Alumni giants. The Alumni lucked on a point during the last quarter making their only touchdown, thus making the score 6 to 6.

R. O. T. C. NEWS

Drill work under the supervision of Sgt. W. Bryson Military instructor is progressing rapidly. This time of the year Sgt. Bryson has much work be-fore him. It is very hard for him to supervise the battalion and issue uniforms at the same time. September 30 was the first day for the wearing of uniforms. There are quite a few yet to be uniformed but Sgt. Brsyon ex-pects them to all be uniformed by the end of the first week.

The new fellows are being drilled steadily by the military instructors ap-pointed by Sgt. Bryson for this work The cadets all especially the new ones seem to be anxious to get through with foot movements and facings so as to be able to start on the manual of arms. Sgt. Bryson stated that the white cadets have been able to carry their rifles home from school so as to clean them properly and not have to take time at school for cleaning as the Lincoln High unite has had to do in the

The Lincoln unit will probably have the opportunity to show that they can be trusted with a rifle also.

Most new boys in the battalion think there is only one than that R. O. T. C. is largely made of and that is drill, but they are badly mistaken be-cause they are graded upon work they do in tests also. Not only are good grades given for good work in tests, but prizes are usually given too.

Last year a test in military topics was given to the Lincoln High battalion. The three highest grades were made by First Sgt. Hiley Hill and Melvin Donely. These two cadets tied three successive times for first place and had to flip a coin to see which of the two would be awarded the gold medal. Sgt. Hill won the flip of the coin thus giving Sgt. Donnely the sil-ver medal for second place and Cor-portal Melvin Chapman the brone medal porol Melvin Chapman the brons medal for third place.

The enrollments in R. O. T. C. are rapidly climbing, so far company A has 61 boys, B 57, C 57, and D 60 this making the enrollment in the whole battalion 265 boys.

Gridsters Must Work Hard

The Lincolnite gridsters have been working out what they call, hard, but not according to Coach Shepards opinion. The coach intends to show them what hard work is. The boys seem to Coach Shepard wants to find what the have had it easy until the Alumni game. Hams or Yonnegans are capable of doing and if their work is not satisfactory he threatens to start a freshman team. This means that fellows who desire to keep up the point in training will have to start getting plenty of rest and letting some of the social ac-tivities go by if they want to keep in condition. So the Yennegans and Hams, nick names given to the squad-ron by Coach Shepard and Anderson, will have to watch their step.

WESTERN TO PLAY COLLEGE TEAMS

Followers of football as it is played in the Negro High Schools of greater Kansas City, will get a chance to see the old English game as it is played in Negro Colleges of the country and especially the south.

The Athletic Association of Western university at Quindaro, Kansas is building up a football team that will rank among the college teams of this country. Among the teams that will be seen in action in Kansas are Langston College of Oklahoma and Wiley College, champions of the Southwestern conference.

One problem that may face them will be that of getting the proper support to promote these games. We hope that they will succeed.

LINCOLN TO PLAY SUMNER FRIDAY

Friday the bitterest of rivalry will be renewed when our Tigers move to the other side of the Kaw river to take on Coach Edward's 1929 edition of the Sumner Jayhawk. This will be the first conference game for the two teams, conference game for the two teams, and anything is liable to happen.

Although it has been a long time since a Jayhawk football team has beat a Tiger eleven, Coach Shepard refuses to use this theory as a basic argument that his team will be able to pluck the feathers from the Jayhawk howk.

Sumer has always proved to be a hard customer for Lincoln and last year the strong aggregation which represented the old gold and blue was only able to beat these bitterest of bitter rivals by a score of 12-0.

This year the Tiger squad is not quite as strong as the undefeated team in valley competition of last year. According to latest reports, Sumner has another strong eleven to pit against Lincoln. Chances are that this will be an interesting game.

It Might Have Been Prevented

Modern science has established a direct connection between many of the infectious and degenerative diseases and an unhealthy condition of the mouth. Regarding many serious ailments science tells us, "This might have been prevented by systematic and careful attention to the teeth.

Safeguard your teeth by regularly cleansing them after each meal and before going to bed. Tooth decay often starts from food particles left in the mouth. Prompt removal of these particles helps prevent tooth decay.

For cleansing your teeth use a dentifrice that will remove causes of decay safely. Your dentifrice should not only clean the teeth—it should avoid scouring or scratching the thin tooth en-amel. For the enamel is a protective covering. Once destroyed it does not grow again.

A safe dentifrice "washes", polishes and protects your teeth. With chalk it loosens the clinging food particles and with a mild vegetable oil soap it washes them away. Such a dentifrice can be truly said to clean teeth the right way.

No Worries and Good Music Make the Pirates Give Way to Gayety

The sophomore classes are given further talks on use of reference books, and early given for the solution. books and card catalog. They also have questions to look up. STATE TEACHERS ASSN. MEETS IN ST. LOUIS

Record Attendance Is Predicted by President Cox

"This will be the best program in the Hostory of our association", says Prin.
H. S. Cox, of the Wendell Phillips school, president of the state association. The president and program committee have been fortunate in securing the services of such eminent educators as Dr. Chas. Judd, director of school of education of Chicago, Dr. Cubbertey of California, President Johnson of Howard University, Dr. N. B. Young of Lincoln University Supt. Chas. A. Less of Jefferson City and several others equally as prominent.

"We are anticipating a very cordial welcome from the teachers of St. Louis," continues President Cox, "for the teachers of our chief city have already received us with open arms, extending many courtesies and entertainment as well as the generous hospitality of their homes". Kansas City proposes to be well represented. The en-tire Manual Training and Industrial arts club plans to make the trip in three cars and reports of many others are coming each day.

Registration is rapidly going on with Mr. H. O. Cook, the secretary, and already several schools have full enrollment. Foster opportunity was first 10 0per cent.

HALLOWE'EN CONTEST BRINGS COMPETITION

The Hallowe'en prize contest was a very hotly contested affair among the Junior or beginning typists. Ernest Brown succeeded in capturing first place in all four events—one-minute, two-minute, five-minute and fifteenminute tests-but his margin of victory was less than one word per minute in all except the five-minute test. Gertrude Frazier pushed him closely in the one-minute test, Medora Johnson, in the two-minute test, Bernice Ford, in the five-minute test, and Viola Collins in the fifteen-minute test.

The highest record made was in the five-minute test—35 net words per minute. This is a very good rate of speed for students beginning in September. In the fifteen-minute test the highest rate was 23.3 words per minute. Considering the fact that this was new material and rather difficult, the record is not such a poor one.

Flora Moran walked away with the accuracy prize, making but one error on the fifteen-minute test.

The prizes were as follows: place, two pounds of chocolates—awarded to Ernest Brown; second place, one pound of chocolates—awarded to Viola Collins; accuray prize, one-half pounds of chocolates and a chocolate Hallowe'en cat awarded to Flora Moran.

ADKINS PROVES HIMSELF CHAMPION

Yo-Yo Contest Easily Won by the Tricking Genius

The Yo-Yo contest which was held Friday night at the pirate social was won by Woodrow Adkins. The title, Yo-Yo king was given him after he defeated Bernard Jackson and Cassel Goss. There were other contestants who did not get to spin.

Adkins favored us with tricks that only a Yo-Yo genus could display. When he took the stand he received a hearty applause from the fun makers.

Coss was the next best Yo-Yo'er in the school. He handled the little instrument with much grace and skill. Even after the social he was seen exercising his Yo-Yo.

Much to the surprise of those present the girls did not enter the contest. Nevertheless it was a gay affair and Adkins displayed tricks that had never before been seen. Long live the King.

BUSINESS STAFF MAKES MEMBERSHIP CALL

The Business Staff of the Lincolnite met under the direction of Mr. Morriseon, October 29. The need of a larger number of advertisements was discussed and each of the members were asked by Mr. Morrison to secure as many as possible. Some of the members seemed to think that a large number of advertisements would overcrowd the paper. Mr. Morrison said that in this case another page would be added to the paper.

It was suggested by the advertising manager that a prize be given to any of the members who brought in the greatest amount of "Ad" space. Between this issue and March issue the plan was adopted and the members were supplied with contracts. Burdette Hockaday and McKenzie Coleman were added to the staff. Any student who is interested in becoming a member of the business staff may do so by seeing Mr. Morrison, the advertising manager or business manager. All students who are loyal Lincolnites are asked to help support their paper by reporting to the business staff any prospects of advertisements.

Library Notes

Miss Patton from the Swope branch library is assisting in Lincoln library for two hours and a half each Wednes-day and Friday mornings. Miss Pat ton is a graduate of the University of Illinois library school, and came to Kansas City library in September.

Mrs. Lee's "Join the Big Parade", posters have been so popular that two posters have been so popular that two of them have been filled and the third one well started. As a result of this a large number of the grade school children have taken out library cards who have never had them before.

Build Up Lincoln

There are any number of our students who are guilty of always saying that Lincoln High School is not any good or that it is not what it formally was. Lincoln High School always has been, is and always will be just what the students make it. How many of you ever go to the principal or any members of the faculty with any of your original plans for a better school? There is about one out of a thousand. How many of you are there who are willing to invest a little of your space, time and money into anything that may go to raise the social standard in your school? In other high schools you find school clubs, high fraternities and other school and class organizations that are well supported by the students. If an attempt is made at Lincoln to establish such organizations, there is always a disagreement as to the meeting place, or who is to be the officers. The students do not care to spare a little money for pins or other expenses. As a result, the organization soon passes out of ex-

Join the Hi-Y

Although several efforts have been made to reorganize the Hi-Y Club this year, it is yet an unorganized body at Lincoln. It seems that most of the members have lost interest in the Club. The Hi-Y Club is a real live wire club for real live wire boys, and it seems that more boys should be interested in such an organization. It is terested in such an organization. It is an organization that tends to lift the boys from the common things in life to the higher things.

While it is true that Mr. Russell will not be connected with the club this year because he is not connected with the Y. M. C. A. this year, yet that is no reason why we should not reor-ganize. Mr. White, who has been a very faithful adviser along with Mr. Russell is very desirous that the Hi-Y Club become organized. He is very much interested in the club and the that we can do is to cooperate

Success to Scott

Mr. Roland B. Scott, a former Lincolnite, on his return to school at Howard University will be a student instructor in chemistry. Mr. Scott has maintained an average of "A" which is the highest average attainable, during his two years of study as a medical student at the University.

He was very active in student activities during his course of study at Lincoln and he always was ready to render service to the school when it was possible for him to do so.

All who know him are wishing him the best of success in his future

Things You Ought to Know

Dr. R. R. Taylor, Vice-Principal of Tuskegee Institute and Mrs. Taylor have returned after spending seven months in Africa and Europe, where Dr. Taylor was sent on an Educational mission. They were formally greeted by Dr. Robert R. Moton, Principal, by assembly students and teachers of Tuskegee Institute. While on his tour plans were to be made for the con-struction of the newly chartered Booker Washington Agricultural and Industrial Institute at Kakata which was modeled after Tuskegee and is to serve the people of Liberia in a similar way that the American school serves the people of this country.

The exhibit of the work of St. Louis Negroes in Practical Art, held at the Public Library in July is to be an annual feature. This announcement was made Saturday evening, Sept. 21, at Poro Auditorium at a reception. Awards are to be given in this exhibit.

The republican nominee for mayor of New York City, showed himself to be in real sympathy with the Negro in his address delivered at the Emancipation celebration held at the foot of Lincoln's statue in Union Square. Mr. Guardia criticized the recent action of the Rev. W. S. J. Blackshear in barring Negroes from his church by showing the punishment Christ would have given for such shame. The observer under the auspices of the N. A. A. C. P. was to commemorate the sixty-seventh anniversary of Lincoln's issuance anti-preliminary Emancipation Proclamation.

Professor Mable Carney of the Teachers College of Columbia Univer-sity says "that the Negro is extremeanxious for an education but is denied it in Southern states." There is no other grop in America so shrewd about education as the Negro", he said

There has been a decided decrease in the size of the lunch line from what it was early in September.

If You Were Born in November

Persons born in this month are fond of good companionship and make excellent friends. They are gifted with the use of their hands and have a fine taste for music. Both the boys and girls possess a curious temper. They are physically lazy, dispise hard labor for themselves but are provedly as for themselves, but are mentally active, alert workers and succeed best when at the head of what they are doing. You are inclined to set too much store on your opinions. You must beware of frivolous friends. Make better use of your leisure hours. You lack self control. You should cultivate a healthy ambition, and strive hard to attain your desire. Sophomores born in this month are: Charles Powell, Raymond Pendarvis, William Cook, Goseg Douglass, Gretchen Hambrick, Freddie Eartherly, Florence Fields, Surille Jordon, Frank Taylor, Helen Lightner, Inez Lyons, Mildred Jack-son, Pearl Marshbank, Frankie Mar-tin, Katherine Miller, Elbre McDowell.

Don't run or push to get to the lunch line because the periods have been made longer.

Don't tell your locker number to any one and expect the school to make good what is taken from them.

TIGERS BEAT TOPEKA TO COP FLAG

Give Tigers Championship

Someday a valley team will learn that it matters not to the Tigers how strong it is due to fall when it meets the Tigers. The Tigers have virtually won the valley championship again. They have downed what they thought would be their strongest contenders in a 19 to 9 score.

The Tigers went to Topeka with much respect for a fellow known by the name of Silvery. Now Mr. Silvery is just another Topekan.

The Tigers kicked off to open the game. Todd received the ball. Topeka lost the ball but regained it on downs. They then plunged to the five yard line where Silvery went through center for a touchdown. Silvery then made the extra point.

In the second quarter Epps made first down on a five yard run to place the ball on the ten yard line. Williams then carried the ball over. Snorgrasses educated toe was not working and he missed the point. The score at the end of the half was 7-6 with Topeka leading.

J. R. Williams came through with his second touchdown of the game in the third quarter.

In the final quarter Lyons made the most spectacular play of the game and became the undisputed hero of the Lincoln 6 6 7—19

Saturday of next week the Booker Washington High School eleven will be in Kansas City to take the bacon to Tulsa. The Tigers though in a city where bacon is much more plentiful than it is in Tulsa, because of the numerous packing houses, intend to allow the Tulsa lads to only get a slight smell of the bacon unless however that the team visits the packing houses while in

Last year when the Tigers clashed with the Tulsa team, they suffered their only defeat of the season. They lost by a score of 31-12. The Tigers were the only team to cross the Tulsa eleven's line.

The Tulsa elevens with a few exceptions is practically the same as last year, and is somewhat heavier than the Tigers.

A great game is in store for those who are planning to witness it. Activities tickets will not be accepted at this game. The admission for students is twenty-five cents.

Western Bows to Topeka

The great devastating football ma-chine of the Western University of Kansas was brought down on its knees by the Topeka eleven by a score of 14-6. This game was a very good one because it showed how brains could out play brawn. The Topeka eleven was a slight, little, shifty team while the Western U. team was one of much weight and very fast at that. A few of the players on the U. eleven who were formerly of Lincoln were Henry Graves, Earl Weddington and Carl Brown. Western U. has asked for a return game with Toolka but the late. return game with Topeka but the lat-ter has refused. The coach seems to have sensed the causes of his team's losing the game for he has been working the eleven hard for the big game with a college from Texas at the Mulebach field. The coach of Western intends to show football fans what can be done if a team obeys football regulations, and practices hard.

E. ST. LOUIS PROVES TOO MUCH FOR TIGERS

19 To 9 Victory Over K. V. S. Tigers Fail to Warm Up Until Near End of Game

E. St. Louis, Ill., Sat., Oct. 26.— The Tigers journeyed here where life is one hard knock after another, and were knocked off of their feet for the first time this year. They were knocked out for the count of 25-6.

A fellow by the name of Jack Adams, A fellow by the name of Jack Adams, who is captain of the East St. Louis eleven and a quarter was just too much for our Tigers. Mr. Adams, was the leading man of the show. He scored three of his teams four touchdowns and made a fifty yard pass which lead to the final touchdown.

The show opened with the Tigers kicking off the East St. Louis. The latter fumbled and a Tiger recovered the oval. The St. Louis lads then took the ball by way of intercepting a pass, but the Tigers held them on downs. The Tigers were playing a great defensive game during the first half. But just a minute before the show Mr. Adams, came into the limelight where as the first score was registered. Adams made a fifty yard pass which, our own Fred Thomas, who is no slouch at playing football, knocked down. The ball was then placed on the three-yard line and Adams scored. The score at the end of the half was 6-0 with the Tigers on the short end. It was the first time as far back as we recalled that a Tiger team has trailed at the half.

The home boys started early in their scoring way to begin the second half. Clarkson's punt was short. East St. Louis took the ball and plunged their way to second touchdown. Adams again carrying the ball over.

The Tigers went into the last fracas trailing 12-0 and put over their only touchdown. Gantt and Clarkson completed a pass, Clarkson takes the fire years. pleted a pass, Clarkson taking the pass and placing the ball on the five-yard line. Williams then crashed through guard untouched for the touchdown. Snorgrass' kick was slow. Adams was not through yet. He played important rolls in the scoring of the final touchdowns. The Tigers kicked off and held Lincoln on downs. Lincoln again took possession of the ball.

Adams punted the ball from his own fifteen yard line the ball hit the ground and rolled to the Tiger's fifteen yard line. Clarkson picked the ball for his own, five yard line but fumbled, a Lincoln player recovered it. Adams then carried the ball over. For the final touchdown Adams hurled a fifty-yard pass to one of his mates who carried the ball over.

TIGERS TO INVADE

ST. LOUIS

On Armistice Day the Tigers will make their second invasion of St. Louis. This time they play Vashon High School of St. Louis, Mo.

As in the game with Tulsa the Tigers will be out to avenge themselves of a two-year grudge that they have against Vashon. In 1926 the team then under the tutelage of former Coach Wright invaded St. Louis and came back with a 6-0 defeat pinned on them.

Last year the two schools were scheduled to meet here, but heavy rain during the day caused the game to be postponed. The St. Louis team never got here since the game was postponed. They were en route when notified to turn back to St. Louis.

Overconfidence is a dangerous weapon. One often brings defeat upon himself by over-confidence. The Tigers narrowly escaped defeat in their game with Western College because they had with Western College because they had too much confidence. They thought that all they had to do was to play the game with Western College and victory was assured. As a result Western College made them look like a bunch of hams for two quarters. When the Tigers finally realized that they could not win on confidence they snapped out of it and won the game.

snapped out of it and won the game.

The chief lesson that athletics are supposed to teach, especially in school, is good sportsmanship. Banks, of Western College has failed to learn that lesson. In basketball he is always forced out of the game at an early period because of fouling. When Lincoln and Western College played their football game, Banks and our own Snorgrass were extracted from the game because of fighting. Banks it is claimed hit Snorgrass while the former was being tackled. Snorgrass hit Banks and both were benched. Several other of Snorgrass teammates complained of the dirtiness of play of Banks. An athlete who is of Banks' type an other leaves. Banks. An athlete who is of Banks' type can only lower the athletic standing of his school.

HAIL, THE CHAMPIONS OF MISSOURI

Tigers Upset Valley Dope, Become State Champs Now What?

Hail the champs of Missouri! This title was given the Lincoln High School football boys after they defeated Vashon in St. Louis. This means that the boys haven't lost a Missouri game this year. "It may be added," says Coach Shepard, "that they didn't lose one last year." There are two other titles of championship that they may have. If they defeat Sumner they will be champions of the M. V. I. A. A. and if they defeat Tulsa they will be champions of the Southwest. Topeka was the only real obstacle in the way for the championship of the M. V. I. A. A. The rumor was that Lincoln was too weak for Topeka. "Well, we won so that upset the dope," says Coach Shepard. Now the next is the game with Sumner. Can we beat them, Tigers? Hail the champs of Missouri! This

The team started this year with seven letter men. The line was the hardest position on the field and there were only three letter men who played that position.

Now that the season is nearing an end, praise the champions for what they have done for our school. On to the next season so that the Tigers of Lincoln High School may cover a wider field of championships than in previous years.

Former Student Sends Newsy Letter

"The rush is over and every one has settled down to a pleasant school year," says Thelma Arnold in a letter to Mr. Cook. Miss Arnold is attending Howard University at Washington, D. C., along with other former "Lincolnites."

Miss Arnold says that the classes are in full swing and that there is not much time for pleasure, most of the leisure time being spent in doing out-The "Lincolnites" are making a good showing, especially Roland Scott. Other members of the Lincoln High school alumni who were heard of are Cordell Norman and Oliver Bell.

Best wishes were sent to the school as a whole and it is hoped that more industrious students like Scott be sent out in the outcoming class. "I hope," says Miss Arnold, "that a great number of them will come to Howard."

We are always glad to receive word from any of our alumni and it is hoped that some more will let us know what they are doing.

Miss B. Morrison says that the boys quartet is doing very good work. The quartet is almost ready to be heard from, and it is said, that it is the best Senior quartet that she has ever directed.

Thanksgiving

What does this day mean to us? Why do we celebrate it? When did it first begin? All of these questions and many more may be asked by unknow-ing persons.

Our first Thanksgiving was celebrated after the harvest in 1621. The Pilgrims, who had suffered many hard-ships, saw fit to thank God for their first great harvest. Four men were sent to kill game for the feast. Before feasting they prayed and thus showed their thanks.

No set date was made for Thanks-giving until the Civil War when the president of the United States issued president of the United States issued a proclamation for the day set aside to thank God to be the last Thursday in November. Thus it has been celebrated each year after?

What does this day mean to us in our modern times? Does it really mean a day of pleasure or reunion or do we still have the old pilgrim idea? Surely if the poor pilgrims thanked God for if the poor pilgrims thanked God for the few advantages that they had we can thank Him for the many advantages that have come to us since that time? Some say that they have had hard times and there isnt' much to be thankful for, but the pilgrims even thanked God for their lives. Why cant' we thank Him for ours?

Let us all get the old ideas and on that morning of November let us all give thanks unto the Lord.

The Junior Red Cross campaign will be operated this year under a new plan. Instead of having contest for 100% groups and stating a certain amount to be paid, the donations this year will be given for the joy of giving. This plan is more educational than the previous one.

The Freshman before entering High School has been taught that Behavior is a mark of intelligence and refinement. When a Freshman sees a Senior or Junior who isn't living up to these rules he thinks it is well for him to do the same since the Seniors of the School are leaders and are about to leave the school.

TIGERS SUCCUMB TO TULSA

Heavy Hornet Team Gives Tigers 8-0 Sting

It was a fighting bunch of Tigers that took a 6-0 sting from Booker Washington Hornets of Tulsa, Oklahoma. The Tigers fought one of the greatest and gamest battles that they have fought this year.

The odds were against them and they were forced to fall. The Tulsa team outweighed the Tigers ten pounds per man, the line averaging one hundred and eighty-nine pounds per man. Weights of the opponents coupled with the heavy field which was played on made it difficult for the Tigers to move the Tulsa line.

By winning this game the Hornets retained the Southwestern champion-ship which they won last year when they defeated the Tigers in Tulsa.

The loyal lads defense was repeatedly torn up by the onrushing Southerners, who sometimes made two first downs in succession, but even then it was a remarkable battle between the two teams since only once was there any scoring done.

The lone touchdown of the game came in the second quarter a few minutes after the quarter began, with Tulsa in possession of the ball on the Tigers twenty-one yard line. Durant went through the Tigers line for fourteen yards and first down. He evaded a tackle around the left circle of the line and carried the ball across the

A Tiger's march to a touchdown was halted in the third quarter, when they drew a twenty yard penalty. Lyons, it is claimed, clipped a Tulsa lineman. Epps pulled down one of Durant's points and the ball was placed on the forty yard line. Clarkson on an end run made first down placing the ball on Tulsa's forty-six yard line. Thomas made a second first down on a long end run. Then came the penalty which placed the ball far back in the Tigers' territory.

The Hi-Y

In an editorial in the last issue of the Lincolnite some comments were made upon the failure of the Hi-y club to reorganize. The failure of the club to reorganize was blamed upon the lack of interest of the boys.

Th real reason why the club is not The real reason why the club is not functioning this year was revealed after a talk with Mr. White a teacher and club adviser, and Mr. J. L. Russel, formerly of the Paseo Y. M. C. A. and club sponsor. The Hi-y clubs of all high schools are sponsored by Y. M. C. A. workers who are interested in the pass. The resignation of Mr. Russell. boys. The resignation of Mr. Russell, leaves the "Y" without a boys' work secretary, and there is no one at the Y at present who is particularly interested in boys. As a result the finest organization for boys in the high school is unorganized.

WILLIAMS STARS AS TIGERS WIN 8-6 Decision Over Vashon Gives Tigers State Championship.

Things looked pretty bad for the Tigers in the last quarter with only a few minutes to go. They were trailing Vashon with only a minute to play when their real break came. J. R. Williams, whose work at fullback has been an important factor in the Tigers success intercepted a forward pass and electrified the crowd as he raced ninety. electrified the crowd as he raced ninety yards for a touchdown to give the Tigers an 8-6 decision over Vashon and the interscholastic championship of Missouri.

And what a crowd it was that saw that game. Vashon and Sumner stu-dents were out in full force to see that game of games. The Tigers were not without rooters although they were some two hundred and fifty-four miles from home. Sumner rooters who are Vashon's greatest rivals gave the Tigers their unified support.

The Tigers went into the game a high spirited team and all during the first quarter they held the heavy Vashon team in their own territory.

A touchdawn appeared to be a sure

Vashon team in their own territory.

A touchdown appeared to be a sure thing for the Tigers. But with the ball on the one yard line and second down they lost the ball on downs.

yard line and Blocker carried the ball over for a touchdown. Clarkson, who engaged in a punting duel with Nolan, punted the ball for fifteen yards. Vashon made two first downs in succession to place the ball on the six yard line. Blocker carried the ball to the one yard line and then plunged over guard for a touchdown. Foster's kick for point was low. The half ended with Vashon holding a 6-0 advantage over the Tigers.

In the third quarter the punting duel between Clarkson and Nolan was hot-ter than ever and the ball was never placed within scoring distance.

The Tigers went into the final quarter with more fight than ever. They resorted to their aerial attack and Williams completed a forward pass to Thomas from Vashon's five yard line. The referee ruled that Thomas was out of the end zone when he received Thomas, however, was tackled and the play was ruled a safety. The ball was placed on the twenty yard line. Waters gained twenty-eight yard line. Waters gained twenty-eight yards on a long end run and was stopped only by the fleetness on foot of Clarkson. Clarkson attempted a pass that was intercepted and a Vashon player placed the ball on the fifteen yard line. Blocker attempted two forward passes the first was incomplete and the second Williams snagged on his own ten yard line and began on his own ten yard line and began his long run for a touchdown. Clark-son's try for point was wide. The game soon ended with a new Missouri interscholastic champion crowned after two years of waiting.

The work of Hicks at left end in the place of Coleman was exceptionally Epps' fighting spirit and knowledge of the game was a great asset to his successful handling the team in the stead of Coleman.

The day will long be remembered when he did all he could on ladies day at Muchlebach Field in 1928 to stop the powerful K. C. Monarchs. The second team of the Tuskegee football boys made their school victorious by defeating Miles Memorial College of Birmingham 39-0. During the entire game the Varsity sat on the side lines and watched their Junior brothers. brothers.

Cush Franklin's 39 yard place kick enabled the Wiley Wildcats to over-come the 2 to 0 lead that Sam Houston had over them and win 3 to 2.

SPORTOLOGY

The Tigers started the football season bent upon attaining three cham-pionships. By defeating Vashon they have won the state championship. They have only Sumner to defeat for the M. V. I. A. A. Crown. And at the time of this writing they are seeking the Southwest championship in their game with Booker Washington of Tulsa. What a record that will be if the Tigers take them all.

Too much credit cannot be given the members of the Tiger squad for the showing they have made this year. In every game that they have played they have gone against comparatively heavier teams than they. But in each of their games they have shown the real fighting spirit.

Aleveolar Abscesses Due to Diseases of the Gum

By Dr. S. S. Hill

Injury of the Gum-The gum is occasionally injured by the use of a tooth pick or a bristle of toothbrush which may become lodged between the gingival margin and the tooth. An inflamation may occur if the wound has been infected, involving not only the gum but frequently the cervical part of the periodontal membrane and the periodonditis with subgingival parulis formation. Other causes are poor fillings, either projecting into the gum or lacking in contour, faulty bands and gold crowns, which project into the gum instead of being closely fitted around the neck of the tooth. After the cement by which they are fastened has washed away, these places will har-bour contaminated food and be the seat of fermentation and later suppuration. A similar condition occurs under fixed bridges, which can be properly cleaned

LINCOLN WALLS RING WITH MUSIC

Students Enter Into Singing With Enthusiasm

With Enthusiasm

On November 21, the walls of dear old Lincoln rang out with, "At Purrots Door" a French Folk song and "Silent Night," a Christmas carol, a thousand voices strong. This idea of assembly singing was brought about by Mr. Love. This was the first time in five years that this method of singing has been brought before the student body. It is said, that "music refuses man's mind." If this is true, it may act as an incentive to good discipline.

The assembly was divided into two parts, Junior and Senior, and Fresh-

The assembly was divided into two parts, Junior and Senior, and Freshmen and Sophomore. Miss Morrison, Mr. Jones, and Mr. Morrison were in charge of the singing. The first number that was sung was Silent Night, this song was divided into four part harmony, Soprano, Alto, Tenor and Bass. After a practice of the different parts the song was sung. "At Purrots Door," was tried in a similar manner, but was not learned because of lack of time. Mr. Jones hopes that more of these Assembly singings may be had.

may be had.

Plans are being made to divide the groups into sections for the various voice. The example of good discipline set by the Jr. and Sr. was greatly appreciated by the music department. There was a decided laxity of discipline solvibilited by the Fr. and Soph groups. exhibited by the Fr. and Soph. groups, and it is hoped that steps will be taken by the advisors and members of this body to eliminate this condition.

Lincoln Loses in Banking

The banking percentage of Lincoln High School has fallen down consid-High School has fallen down considerably. During the week of November 18-22 out of the thirty-seven groups only three were one hundred per cent and six groups did not bank at all. What has happened to the Loyal Lincolnites? Maybe the meaning of Loyalty has been forgotten. At chart has been posted in each room showing the banking bercentage of that respective room. If each student would bank one penny that would would bank one penny that would make his group 100 per cent. It's not the amount banked but the idea of acquiring a thrifty habit. Advisory Groups Give Cheer

The old slogan that was adopted at Lincoln in 1929 was brought to life again this year when Miss Smother's, Miss Baker's and Mr. Mayberry's Senior advisory groups and Mr. Massey's trade group gave Thanksgiving baskets to needy families. The Lincolnite attempted to interest the various advisory groups in giving bas-Lincolnite attempted to interest the various advisory groups in giving baskets. It desires that all groups that possibly can to make arrangements to give some worthy family that is in need of a Christmas basket. Each group will have the privilege of adopting its own family or exchanging families with another group or buying a basket in with another group. Already Miss Barker, Miss Mason, Miss Marshall, Miss Payne, Miss Brown, Mr. Howell, Miss Glenn, Mr. Carrol, Mr. Griffin, Miss Edwards, Mr. Tompkins, Miss Taylor, Mr. Morrison and Miss Rhodes have stated that their groups promise to give Christmas baskets. Mr. Marsden's group and Mr. Jefferis gave a Thanksgiving basket and are planning to give a Christmas basket also.

Library Classes End

The classes for Library lessons were finished by December 1. Members of the staff are ready to assist the stu-dents in making use of the information which was gained in the lbirary classes. which was gained in the lbirary classes. It is hoped that each student will familarize himself with the Library books, remembering the books are tools by which he advances through life, says Mrs .Byrd. The better a boy or girl knows his home library the easier it will be to use his college Library. If he does not go away to college his only chance for mental growth is through use of books. The Public Library furnish these free of cost. It recognizes "that all work and cost. It recognizes "that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy." Many interesting and entertaining books are to be found on the Library shelves.

Girls Down the Boys

The daily speed tests for the beginning typists are becoming quite lively and interesting. For a while it seemed that Ernest Brown was to have things all his own way. The junior typists seemed to take it as a matter of course that he should head the list. But lately several young ladies have demonstrated the value of accuracy and by writing with only one or two errors for the ten minutes they have errors for the ten minutes they topped the list. Medora Johnson headed the list on November 25, and Ford on November 26. The Bernice Ford on November 26. The junior speed record is 35 net words per minute for ten minutes—held jointly Ernest Brown and Bernice Ford.

In the advanced class, Gertrude Jett is still holding the championship, but Melvin Houston and Edward Pate— both midyear students—are promising to give her a great deal of trouble within the next two weeks.

NATIONAL COUNCIL HEARS LINCOLN CHORUS

Full Chorus Sings Three Numbers at Council Luncheon

The Lincoln High School chorus, under the direction of Miss Blanch K. Morrison sang at the Hotel Baltimore Saturday, November 30.

The chorus was received with much The chorus was received with much enthusiasm by the English teachers from all over the United States. They contributed three selections to the program. The first song to be sung was "Deep River." The deep rich tones of the bass voices, blending with the soprano, alto and tenor made the chorus go over big.

The second song was, "Listen to the Lambs," by Nathaniel Dett. "King Jesus Is A'listening" was sung for an encore. Lincoln's chorus was the only chorus to sing on the program and their selections were highly appreciated.

Lincoln Participates In Bazaar

An interesting collection of old relics including letters as old as one hundred thirteen years old, manu-scripts concerning slave trades, an old nut, fashioned by a Negro years ago and a pair of stockings worn by Mrs. Abraham Lincoln was exhibited.

Lincoln Has a Friend

In the absence of Miss Myra Glenn, Mrs. M. F. Cook, the wife of Principal H. O. Cook, volunteered her services to Lincoln for November 20-21 and 22. She took charge of class work, Advisory group and study group. She pleasantly performed her task and was treated by courtesy by all children with whom she came in contact. Mrs. Cook not only volunteered but asked for no pay for service given. MAYBERRY'S GROUP LEADS IN CAMPAIGN

Lincoln Fails to Give As Liberally As Formally

The Junior Red Cross Campaign which began November 25, ended November 27, with Mr. Mayberry's group leading in amount of membership paid and also amount of money paid. This group turned in $4.52, paying twelve Junior memberships. Miss Baker's group followed closely with $3.30 and ten memberships being paid. Miss Smother's group comes third with a total of six memberships.

There were some groups that did not contribute anything toward the fund. Those were Mr. Anderson's freshman group and Mr. Massey and Smith both trade groups. This made the record of the school go far below its usual standard. The contributions by group ranged from eleven cents to $4.52. Twelve members of the faculty paid their Senior membership. The total amount for the school was $49.90, the lowest amount ever given the Red Cross by the Lincoln High School stu-

Strothers Succeeds Smith

Harold Strothers has succeeded B. Richard Smith in becoming editor-in-chief of the Lincolnite. It has been seen fit to change the editor-in-chief every ten weeks, in this way giving more students in the newswriting class this opportunity. Strothers has proved himself capable of such a position. He has been a member of the Business staff for two years. "I'll do all in my power to make the paper live up to its platform," says Strothers.

Football

Football to many spectators, is just a series of end runs, and jumbled players, with sometimes a good pass to furnish them a thrill. But under this outward display are keen minds and strong bodies all working together. Team work is what counts in the long run. In order to be at his best for each game, each player must live up to the rules governing his training. These rules will help him to keep his mind clear and his body strong.

Football also teaches fair play and good sportsmanship, which are things everyone admires. When our players get into the great games of life they will be glad of their training in playing the game square. Football helps to build men and in so doing, build men who will be the leaders of the world in a few years. world in a few years.

How's This For a Record?

There is a first hour freshman class which has enrolled thirty-six pupils and has had two hundred and fortytwo separate absences. That makes an average of one week and lmost two days for each student in one five weeks. The end o fthe five weeks found four students dropped while very low grades were received by the majority of the class. The constant and retarding review to which the class is subjected is a result of these absences.

There is nothing in such a record to be proud of unless it is the fact that the teacher and one or two pupils were able to get there on time each day. one pupil can get to school on time every day why can't twenty do the same thing? All Lincolnites should aim to better their school and incidently themselves.

The tardy room is too full of care-less maidens and lads who, because they had something to do or the clock wasn't right have brought down the standing of our school. Get up earlier, Lincolnites, and sleep through the lunch hour if necessary—but get up.

Courtesy

Lincolnites must think more about courtesy. If a stranger should pas through the lower hall during the lunch High School students have no concep-tion of courtesy at all. From the stress that was put upon the meaning of tha word last year we should all know what it means now. You don't want people to think of your school as having nothing but impolite students do you? This can be easily remedied if each student would take it in his own hands and remember the other fellow. Let's Practice What Milton Has Said And trust thy honest-offered courtesy Which oft is sooner found in lowly sheds With smoky rafters, than in tapestry

And courts of princes, where it first was named

And yet is most pretended."

Believe It Or Not

You should strive to get your name in the Who's Who column of the Lincolnite. This column was originated for the purpose of giving students publicity who are outstanding in their class work. It is hoped that this column will prove quite popular with the students who do excellent work in some of their classes but not in enough to make the honor roll.

Most of us seniors are not in favor of producing an annual similar to the one put out last year.

It is time to start thinking about the support that you are going to give our coming basketball champions. A number of the high schools throughout the country have already elected their class officers and annual staff and have begun work on their annual.

It is against the rules of the Sumner High School of Kansas City, Kansas, for the boys and girls to socialize together between periods and at lunch time. How would you like that for Lincoln's policy?

TIGERS PLUCK JAYHAWK'S FEATHERS WITH EASE

With a Score of 22-0 Tigers Carry Away M. V. I. A. A. Honors

November 22. For some reason the old Jayhawk's back has been rather tender this year and the Tigers have found it to be a much easier task than in previous years to pluck the old bird's feathers.

Clarkson's kick to start the game was long and the ball was returned to Sumner's four yard line. Jackson was all set to punt his team into the open field when Hurse came on him and downed him behind the line for a safety.

Jackson then kicked off from the twenty yard line and Willoughby returned the oval to the Jayhawk's thirty yard line. The ball was lost on downs

The quarter ended with the ball in Sumner's possession on their own fifteen yard line. After changing goals, Jackson opened the quarter by punting out of bounds. The ball was placed on the twelve yard line. Gantt made first down on an eleven yard run. On the next play the ball was carried one inch from the line. Williams fumbled on his play and fell on the ball. Gantt then went for a touchdown. Gantt missed point.

Lyons carried the ball to the two yard line on a shift play but lost it. Jackson punted and Gantt returned to the twenty-five yard line. Gantt made fifteen yards on an end run. Walter Hagen, who is the Open Golf Champion of Great Britain, states that he finds Negro Caddies to be most suitable. He says that they are always up on the game and are really efficient. According to his statement they know the game from A to Z. They usually hand out the right clubs and are able to imitate the stars of the game.

Authorities of both the New York University and the Georgia University denied the fact that Myers, the Negro star of New York, was kept out of the game because of his color.

In Gary, Indiana, Negroes are not permitted to attend the Emmerson High School but they might go to the Froebel High, which is a mixed school. On the Froebel High team there is a Negro star by the name of Earl Smith. When the two teams played their recent game, Smith did his part by making two touchdowns to defeat Emmerson 13 to 7. Smith made a number of breaks through the Emmerson line and smothered their progress.

Gardner, Burt Hubbard, Frosly, Walker and Johnson compose De Hart Hubbard's famous basketball five. They are said to be the best in the state of Obio.

Tuskegee defeated Morris Brown at Atlanta, Georgia by a score of 32 to 19. Twelve thousand fans attended the game and music was furnished by Tuskegee's 72 piece band. The Tuskegee team was scored upon three times during the game. This was the first time in six years.

The Fisk University Bull Dogs checked Talladega by winning 19 to 6 on their own ground in Nashville, Tennessee. The first half was rather one sided but when the Alabama boys came back in the second half they were still more determined. One of the features of this half came early by the end skirting of Nolan and again early in the fourth quarter after Nolan had run left end for thirty yards. The game ended when Nolan ran a reverse field for an approximate twenty-five yards. After his mates had brought the ball to the foot line but the score failed as the Fisk defensive wall held firmly.

A blocked punt gave the Virginia State football eleven a 6 to 0 victory over the Virginia Union team.

Bluefield lost its first game in three years to West Virginia State, 6 to 0. The winners are making a strong bid for the National Negro Foot Ball Championship.

A team composed largely of the Lincoln University substitutes of Philadelphia defeated the North Carolina State Eagles 32 to 0.

LINCOLN WINS CROSS COUNTRY MEET

Humphrey Takes First Place For the Second Consecutive Time

For the first time in the history of the cross country run in the M. V. I. A. A. the old gold and blue runners have brought a cross country championship to Lincoln. It was the second M. V. I. A. A. championship that has been brought to Lincoln this school year.

Reginald Humphreys, the dimunitive distance runner won the cross country run for the second consecutive time. Last year in Topeka he won first place and set a new record for M. V. I. A. A. runners of the future to hit at. His time was eighteen minutes and forty seconds. His time this year was more than that of last year. This year he ran the distance in nineteen minutes and forty seconds.

Lincoln runners finished one, four, six, seventh and ninth in order named. Humphrey, Albert Rich, Hiley Hill, Jewel Ward and James Kings. Fifteen runners participated.

The score for the 3.4 mile run: Lincoln 11, Topeka 16, Sumner 24. Low total points win.

J. R. Williams has finished his second and final season. Last year he was a substitute to Graves, one of the greatest fullbacks ever seen in the M. V. I. A. A. He proved that he could ably handle that position this year in the stead of Graves, who was graduated.

His work at fullback has been an outstanding factor in aiding the Tigers to win two championships this year. He led the Tigers in scoring with seven touchdowns. J. R. Williams has marked finish to his football career at Lincoln, but it is likely that he will be a track man, as he was a letterman last spring.

Gantt, another star backfield man, has been alternated with Clarkson and Thomas at quarterback and halfback respectively. Gantt, who shares honors with Clarkson as being a great broken field runner played with the Tigers in 1927. Last year he started but quit. Gantt does not participate in any other form of athletics.

Hockaday went out this year for the first time and helped to solve Coach Shepard's problem of building his outer wall. Hockaday is a letter track man wall. Hockaday is a letter track man. It is possible that Hurse and Willoughby may not be back next season. Hurse at present is a junior and may become a senior after the first semester. Willoughby is in the trade department. Both were linemen and played their first season in a very and fodty seconds.

Girls Organize For Basketball

The girls of Miss Z. Taylor's gym classes have started organizing for basketball. There are at least four teams in a class. Miss Taylor thinks this is a good idea for girls to know basketball so when there is a game they will understand it and not just think of it as "we make a score when the ball goes in the basket." "There is more to consider," says Miss Taylor, "than that. There are the fouls, we must understand all in order to enjoy a good game."

enjoy a good game."

We also must learn to be a good sport and be able to smile when we lose as well as when we win.

When the M. V. I. A. A. officials select their mythical team for 1929, Lincoln will have its share of stars on the team as in previous years.

The team was not the team it was last year, but nevertheless it has won two championships, winning the state and Valley championships.

Epps, Clarkson and Coleman, the later being a lineman and the others backfield men, are the only players of last year back who were on the eams. Williams, however, was given monorable mention.

These men will probably be selected again this year. The work of Epps, Clarkson and Williams has been outstanding all season as has that of Thomas and Gantt. Gantt has alternated with Clarkson and Thomas at quarter back and right halfback.

Coleman is the only lineman of last years' team who was on the all-valley team back this year. He is assured of being selected as he has been for two years. Among the new men who have done fine work on the line and who will probably be selected are Lyons at end, Hurse tackle, and Collier guard.

Teeth Contact and Occulsion

By Dr. S. S. Hill, Dentist

When the teeth are in normal alignment the approximating surfaces of the teeth in each jaw are in actual contact at one point, known as the contact point. The object of this contact is the protection of the investing tissues. This is accomplished by preventing the crowding of food into the interproximal spaces. Any deviation from normal alignment of the loss of any tooth in the arch (with the possible exception of the third molar) will result in impairment of function and a loss of the protection to the investing tissues; and op-portunity will be afforded for the crowding of food material between the teeth, thereby establishing a condition favorable to fermentation and put re-factive changes.

The alevolar process, which is the bony tissue surrounding the roots of the teeth, is a temporary structure de-signed to furnish support to the teeth while present within the jaw. It is built up around the roots of the teeth as they develop after the eruption of their crowns and is removed by the process of absorption after the loss of any tooth. It follows, therefore, that after the premature loss of a tooth and the removal of its supporting process, no stimulus remains for bone development; and continuity of the entire arch

He was very much pleased with the manner in which the songs were sung.

After the singing he gave to the chorus words of encouragement. He told of his own work in Chicago and said that the thing that courted work said that the thing that counted most was dependability. 'I am always at home in Lincoln High,' he continued. Much was gained from his lecture and he hopes that many of the members of the chorus will take up choral music after they finish High School.

And now Christmas time is here

At the close of another year.

We welcome this glad Christmas time

That brings to all good cheer, For when it comes it reminds us Of the birth of our Saviour dear.

And as this happy Yule Tide

Think This Over

Very often when a class room becomes too noisy the entire class is punished, although a number of pupils were not disorderly. When we are of the latter group our protest are loud and many. We state that it is not fair and that we shouldn't be punished for another's misbehaving. It is usually the same people who disturb each time and the same persons who suffer. Those who insist in making an uproar would no doubt stop if they realized how great a wrong they were committing. That added test or assignment will mean added work and worry for some of the members of the class. Let's all work together for order and keep in mind the other fellow.

Christmas Giving

Christmas time means gift time to many of us and we start wondering how we are going to supply our many friends with presents. When a person buys gifts he should first take into consideration how much he can afford to spend for that purpose.

Give what you can afford. It is not the gift that is appreciated so much but the spirit in which you give it. An expensive present is perfectly all right to give if you do not make too much of a sacrifice to give it, but do you know that your friend will appreciate a smaller one just as much if you give it with the same spirit? you give it with the same spirit? Do not feel bad because your gifts are inexpensive. Give with the spirit of making someone happy with your gift and it will be highly appreciated. Post cards are good remembrances.

Santa is Coming

Are you a believer in Santa Claus? Are you a benever in Santa Claus! It is all a very fine idea. If you have been a good boy or girl he will not leave you out. He is bringing lots of toys, candy and almost everything down from "Icy Cape" with him. He is not going to leave a single Lincolnite off bis list.

All the things that old Santa is going to bring you will come Christmas Eve. Don't think about it too hard now and begin to neglect your studies. Every year at Christmas time the students' grades fall. Why is this? Maybe it is because they believe in Santa Claus. Santa Claus can bring almost everything you can think of but he surely can't bring any good grades. Lincolnites don't leave everything to Santa, don't expect him to bring you good grades because you will be die. good grades because you will be disappointed.

Roland Hayes, one of America's most internationally celebrated tenor singers, proved as marvelous and as popular as ever in his season's debut before a capacity crowd Wednesday night in Carnegie Hall.

The Missouri State Association Teachers met at the new Vashon High School in St. Louis last week. Statistics show that 38,990 pupils were enrolled in colored grade schools, and 3,867 in the High Schools, an average of ten per cent, and a higher ratio than in any other state with separate schools except the District of Columbia where the percentage is 14. Many representatives from Lincoln High School were present.

The Negro workers of New York joined with their white fellow workers in celebrating the twelfth anniversary of the Russian Revolution and in demonstrating for the communist election program at a huge mass rally in Madison Square on Sunday. Christmas Suggestions

Do your shopping as early in the morning as possible.

Christmas cards serve as a good remembrance for your less intimate friends.

It is not necessary to buy expensive presents because the smaller ones will be as well thought of.

If you have a number of articles it is a good idea to purchase a shopping bag and then you will not be apt to lose them.

guard against taking the smaller children into large crowds of people.

Be on the lookout for automobiles and street cars at all times. If you have a number of packages before you are ready to come home and still have more shopping to do it would be a good idea to check them.

Remember the habit of waiting until you get to the corner before you cross the street.

It is not a good idea to carry your money in your outside overcoat pocket. Before you have spent all of your money for presents think about opening a Christmas saving account.

First find a sympathetic girl. She will try to understand you. Then on will try to understand you. Then on colored paper put the date and a sweet salutation. "Dearest Queen of my Heart," will do. LINCOLN CAGERS TO OPEN WITH ALUMNI

The Tigers open a hard basketball season during Christmas week. On Friday, December 27, they play their initial game and their annual game with portant games.

This game is looked on with much interest each year not for its importance but it gives the coach a chance to get a line up on his team in action before they begin to play their important games.

The alumni which is made up of stars of yesteryear who have worn and fought to keep the colors of Ol' Lincoln High flying high.

Among those who will probably be seen in action are such stars as Claude Elliot, Troy Carr, Dan Shingleton and a host of other former Lincoln Hicagers.

On Friday of the following week the Tigers will take on Lawrence Hi. This will be the first conference game of the season.

Those who saw these boys from Lawrence know that they are no slouchs when it comes to playing basketball.

Probably the greatest demonstration of long distance caging ever given at Lincoln was given when these boys turned back the Tigers with a 26-17 score only to return to Lawrence the following day where the Tigers evened the account by handing the Lawrence the count by handing the Lawrence lads a duplicate of what was dealt out the night before.

The Tigers will probably lineup in their opening game with Warren and Harrison or Perry at forwards, Epps and Hicks or Thomas at guards and

SPORTOLOGY

Kansas City seems to be well on the way of becoming a center of college football. The success which West-ern University had this year in their first attempt at college football backs up such a statement.

This year two college teams were brought to Kansas City, and Western University held their own against both, winning one and losing one.

winning one and losing one.

Next year three of the most outstading football teams of the country among the Negro Colleges will be seen in action here. Wilberforce, Langston and Wiley are among the strongest teams in the country, and they will be pitted against Western University. Long Live Western "U" and may they receive the necessary support of Kansas City.

An interesting season is expected in the M. V. I. A. A. during the basket-ball season. Sooner or later one of the schools will become tired of having to share the championship with another or other schools and will snatch the basketball crown for itself. Not since the season of '26 has there been a team in the M. V. I. A. A. who has won the crown.

Last season the game which would have given the Tigers the championship was lost to Northeast because Coach Shepard had to bench three of the main cogs of the machine for breaking rules. If such does not happen this year chances are that the Tigers will be the Solo Champions of the valley.

R. O. T. C. Notes

The annual Theoretical test will be held December 18th. Who is going to be high man this year?

I have been at Howard University one month but it seems as though it has only been a week. I have lined has only been a week. I have lined out all of my courses and have settled down to work. I take R. O. T. C. five days a week, and wear the Uniform the same number of days. I find that R. O. T. C. in college is a great deal different from that in High School. The course is of from two to four years and takes up such things as Machine and takes up such things as Machine Guns, Surveying and Infantry drill.

Hoping to hear from you soon and to learn about R. O. T. C. affairs in Kansas City, I am, Oliver Bell.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE BEGINS IN OL' GYM

With the opening game a little more than a week off Coach Shepard is tak-ing his basketball squad through hard practices in order that his cagers will be in top notch condition for the opening of a hard season.

There are seven letter men back from last year. Among them are three forwards, Warren, Harrison and Perry, three guards, Thomas, Epps and Hicks and Frank Jones a center.

Coleman a veteran of three years.

Coleman, a veteran of three years, may not start until possibly the second semester. The injured knee which he received in East St. Louis during the football season and kept him out the football s most of the remaining games, is not sufficiently healed to allow him to start

Coleman was an all valley center and of finding another center. At present he only has Frank Jones. William Pond or Hockaday, new men, may be somewhat of a solution to this problem if such a problem arises.

With the loss of Pennington through graduation, Coach Shepard is looking for another forward who can replace him. It may be either Perry or Har-rison, however, he will need a fourth

The positions at guard are well fixed with Epps, Thomas and Hicks all lettermen and Henry Williams, who did not start until late in the season and did not earn a letter.

. Coach Shepard hopes to upset the old valley dope by making the basketball championship a solo instead of a duet or trio as it has been for the past

Girls Organize for Basketball

Girls Organize for Basketball

The girls basketball teams were organized Monday, December 9, by Miss 2. Taylor. There are four respective teams. They are Senior, Junior, Sophomore and Freshman teams.

This year, each team has a captain and a manager. These were elected as follows: Seniors—Louise Lewis, Captain, Frances Lyons, Manager. Juniors—Jimmie Lee Lovingood, Captain, Mildred Hill, Manager. Sophomores—Armenta Hatcher, Captain; Frankie Boyd, Manager. Freshman—Pearlene Barly, Captain; Estella Meade, Manager. Meade, Manager.

The teams have not played any games so far. The practice times are spent in learning how to handle the ball. The first day Miss Taylor practiced the girls on prompt stopping at the sound of the whistle, dribbling, cen-ter jumping and basket making from free throw line.

The second day was spent in learning how to receive and pass a basket-ball. They also practiced a coopera-

The Senior and Junior teams haven't enough players. There are only four Seniors and about six or eight Juniors. Some that signed up haven't been back since. The roll is called every day and Miss Taylor expects to see the girls at practice.

All teams so far are practicing together. Later they will practice according to classes. The Freshmen and Sophomores show a greater interest in basketball than the other classes. All teams are getting down to real hard work. They hope to play after the balidays. holidays.

Dear Sergeant Bryson:

Heshinan Lean to Lincoln High this season. This will mock the second time for a Freshman team in our school. The Freshman games will be used as a preliminary to all varsity games. The Mouth Is The Entrance For Disease Germs

By Dr. S. S. Hill

In the mouth we have excellent temperature to produce germs, moisture, plenty of food debris and fermentation; and endless chains of broken blood vessels that pick up these poisonous products to be transported to remote portions of the body that are least suspecting and practically defenseless against such invasion.

In natural death we die by inches, but from infections, we are tormented to death, our tissues degenerate until the entire system gives up in despair

Our bodies are made up of systems, specialized to do certain things. When any of them are impaired we begin to feel our discomforts.

A bad tooth is a break in ones system. You know what to do.

Not Overlooked

The Lincolnite wishes to take this means of thanking Miss Brown and Miss Mason for calling our attention to the fact that their advisory groups gave Thanksgiving Baskets. We also wish to compliment Miss Clagget's girls for cooperating with Mr. Jefferies' group in giving a basket. Miss Marshall's group and Miss Mattie Jackson's girls gave a basket together.

GIRLS IN SEWING CLASS MEET DEMANDS

Spring time is near and the demand for spring, wash dress is great. This demand can be answered by any of the girls that take sewing from Mrs. Vida Marshall.

Marshall.

At every season, Mrs. Marshall tries to have the girls make just the thing that is appropriate for that particular time. During the Christmas holidays every one was interested in the style that called for long dresses. Many of the students made their Christmas dresses and they looked as good and better than some of the factory dresses. tory dresses.

The main purpose for having the girls make the wash dresses was to learn how to put bias tape on the wash frock. This makes the dress more attractive and gives it more color. Many different patterns were made. This also teaches them how to be thrifty. With the scraps from the dresses, quilts may be made.

Psychology Class Sells Order

The program given by the Psychology class has seemingly, taught a lesson to the students of the Lincoln High school. The students, on seeing their reflection in the stage mirror, were not pleased and they seem to try to improve in every way.

On the next day after the program the order in the Assembly was very much improved by most of the students but there were still a few that didn't learn the lesson taught by the

It is amazing to see how much clearer the lower hall is at the lunch periods. Several of the students have promised not to loiter there any more. Before the program, there was hardly an aisle to pass through on going down the hall but now you can go down it four abreast if it were necessary.

To be sure that these lessons are not forgotten, it would be a good idea for the Psychology class to give another exhibition similar to the first

TIGERS WIN TWO TITLES

Missouri and Co-M. V. I. A. A. Basketball Championship Won By 1930 Team

Keeping their championship pace, another team of Lincoln's fought its way to two recent titles. This time it was the basketball team. Captain Warren and his mates have to show for their season's toil two titles: one the Missouri State High school championship and the other, Co-Champions of the M. V. I. A. A. In compiling this great record the team won 16 games and lost two. Not a defeat was registered here at home.

Not since the days of 1924 has a Tiger team come near the record set by the present team. Starting the season off in a slambang style, the team was hard hit by the loss of the cap-tain when his presence in the lineup was most needed. Establishing a record by defeating Sumner high, our ancient rivals, three times in one season marked the realization of tiger dreams when we, for the first time, beat them on their own floor. Adding Sumner High, of St. Louis, along with Vashon, also of St. Louis, we retained our undisputed title of champions of the state. Our Co-title in the M. V. I. A. A. was the third consecutive one

We had a well balanced team. With at least ten men on the squad through-out the season, Coach Shepard was able to keep fresh men in the game able to keep fresh men in the game from start to finish. Captain Warren, Hicks, Lyons and Collier took turns at the forward positions. Mac Coleman, Pond and Jones took care of the center duties. Epps, Thomas, Williams and Hunter were the guards. Only Warren, Coleman and Jones will be lost to the team next year. Here's be lost to the team next year. Here's hoping they can come near this year's record and keep Lincoln on top.

Dope meant nothing during the M. V. I. A. A. basketball tournament at Atchison, Kansas. Dopesters had it figured out that Lincoln, Northeast, K. V. S. and Fort Scott would make the strongest bid for the championship. However, K. V. S. was the only school that helped to make it appears that the that helped to make it appear that the dopesters knew a little about their jobs. But even K. V. S. threw the dopesters down in the finals.

Some had it all doped out that Lincoln and Fort Scott would go to the finals, but neither reached semi-finals.

Lincoln's first game was a hard one Lincoln's first game was a hard one with Sumner that was barely won "by the skin of the teeth" as some would say. The hardships of a hard season had begun to show up on the boys in that game, and in the Topeka High game they suffered a letup. The Topekans outplayed them until the last quarter, when Lincoln started a rally which carried them within two points which carried them within two points

As for the Fort Scott Whirlwinds, they probably left the whirl at home, for they proved to be a very light wind for K. V. S. However, the whirl might have been the star center of the team who was left at home because of illness. Northeast was easy cause of illness. Northeast was easy to Atchison.

The tournament was the climax to a very interesting basketball story (season) in the Midwest.

The twelve dollars and ten cents received from the St. Patrick's day soial was used to purchase ceremonial gowns. These gowns were worn Saturday at the Birthday Grand Council Fire which took place in Westport Junior High school and was attended by all the groups of the city. Each group in the city contributed something. The Maevohna and Waneeka groups of Lincoln High school opened the ceremony singing and dramatizing the Indian song, "Here Thy Lovers Cry."

Prevention

By Dr. S. S. Hill Gigantic studies have been made both in medicines and dentistry in the last twenty or thirty years. The most important advances, perhaps, are those of preventive medicine and hygiene, and from all the specialties of medicine there is none in which prevention is more important than in dentistry. Disease of a tooth meas invariably loss of substance; whether it is hard or soft tissue, restoration to normal is seldom possible, a decayed tooth will never fill in, an inflamed pulp will not yield to any treatment, and the result is always loss of part of the tooth or of the whole organ. The treatment is a replacement of the lost organic substance by inorganic material, metal or porcelain, and the result is a com-promise of a more or less temporary character.

The importance of the oral hygiene movement has been acknowledged by the physician, the schools, and the pub-lic, and it is general knowledge that teeth should be saved for masticating purposes and that insufficient mastifi-cation from lack of teeth, often causes malnutrition. Today, however, there is connected with oral hygiene, a still greater factor than saving teeth for mastification; this is prevention of sep-tic conditions in the mouth. We have seen that the mouth is the very gateway through which disease may enter and proceed through various channels to almost any part of the body. In our practical hospitals and clinics we have occasion to see patients where disease is well on the way, so that it is too late for a cure of the secondary is too late for a cure of the secondary chronic disease; we see a large number of patients where we can stop disease by removing the septic condition, and in still others we shall be able to prevent septic oral foci by judiciously selecting favorable cases only for root canal treatment, advising extraction of those teeth which cannot properly be taken care of. Our greatest effort, however, would be digreatest effort, however, would be directed towards educating the public to make them realize the importance of make them realize the importance of preserving the vitality of the tooth and prevent decay, which is almost always the primary cause of pulp disease and dental abscesses. The gums should be kept in healthy condition so as to prevent pyorrhoea, which is a disease of almost equal frequency.
